

San Jose Mercury News

January 17, 2007

CHILEAN VINTNER'S SOLVE MYSTERY, IMPROVE WINES

...A new brand from Chile, Oops, has fun with the whole Carmenère story, using a rather verbose label to tell the history of the grape. The 2005 Carmenère ($12) has spicy berry flavors, a subtle leafy note and medium tannins. The wines are available at Target and will soon be sold elsewhere, too.